About the Experience:

The Castle of Good Hope, which was built between 1666 and 1679 by the Dutch East India Company (VOC). The Castle was developed as a maritime replenishment station, and from 1678 it was the centre of civilian, administrative and military life at the Cape. Today, the Castle is the seat of the military in the Cape, and is open for visitors to explore and learn more about its history. (15min)

For those who enjoy a sense of history, the South African Museum offers a look at life throughout the ages in South Africa. The museum is situated in the Company Gardens, which holds the Seat of Parliament. Pristine lawns, shady paths, ornate fish ponds, statues of past leaders and plenty of curious squirrels are just a part of the Company Gardens' charm. (20min). The Slave Lodge and District 6 are prominent museums that highlight the history of South Africa through Apartheid (15min)

Tucked under the slopes of Signal Hill, the Bo Kaap is a fascinating and vibrant area that was somehow bypassed in the forced removal policies of the Apartheid. Also called the Malay Quarter, this area is characterised by its multi-coloured cottages and steep cobbled streets as well as its exotic Malay culture. (15min)

Table Mountain is the highlight of the trip, we will take the cable car up and spend 2 hours enjoying the views of the whole peninsula (2hours)

Cape Point Tour Half Day: About the Experience

The peninsula falls within the Table Mountain National Park which is world-renowned for its incredible biodiversity. The Cape of Good Hope Nature Reserve spreads out over the rocky headland. It's a protected nature reserve and home to an array of antelope, the rare Cape mountain zebra and other unique animal species. It's also a haven for marine birds, with 250 recorded bird species found in the reserve. Cape Point is the very pointy end of the Cape Peninsula. It's an instantly-recognised landmark and is often mistaken to be the southernmost tip of Africa. There are two national heritage monuments on Cape Point that were built to honour the world's most famous explorers: Vasco da Gama and Bartolomeu Dias (who was the first European explorer to round Cape Point in 1488).

Day 3: Cape Town: Private Woodstock Art, Culture and History Tour

Woodstock is not only filled with beautiful street art but is complemented with an abundance of culture and history. Learn about the people, history and the newfound problems of gentrification alongside observing the artwork and trying the local food at the home of your host
